OH? ON WHOSE AUTHORITY?

This tower of water is the essence of our livelihood and a treasure that our tribe must protect!

That means
we don't have any plans to share it with you.

Oh, reptile man.
With that tower of water, all the villages in the desert will live without worrying about being thirsty.

But you're just going to keep it to yourself like you have been this whole time?
Isn't that being too
selfish?

.....

I think you guys have earned enough by selling the water so expensively.

Everyone's been living a hard life after the desertification but to use this to your advantage is—

Unfair.

.....

Unfair, you say?

Then you're saying that this is fair?

So Hwan's right.
The villagers are having such a hard time right
now...

With that much water,
everyone could live
prosperously.

We're not telling you to just give it to us for free, but there's no reason for you to sell it at such an expensive price
when you have so much water at hand.

Unfair...

You humans are the ones who have destroyed
Ismrosea.

What's that?

It is human greed
that caused the war
that has created the present.

The-that's...

It's all right.
We're not saying that we blame the humans.

If there had been no war, there wouldn't be any hybrids.

But...

...I want you to know that we're not hiding in the dark with the water all to ourselves just because we want to.

Shir: raise

??

Our plan has been requested by a certain scientist to protect this artifact.

From then on, without knowing how this machine works, we have been protecting it for decades.

Hah, that's stupid! How can you protect something you don't even know about?

...But what we do know is that this artifact was used to stop the war.

What? So in order to stop the war they made this and caused desertification?

You're half-right.

But just to clarify things, the desertification started before the war began.

And this was originally created to stop the desertification, not the war.

After the war had ended we went to meet the scientist to stop the desertification but he had been assassinated by them.

Who could have...?

He don't know exactly who did it, but it must have been one of those people who wanted to take the artifact for themselves.

But because of the death of that scientist, we now know for certain that if people know about the existence of this artifact...

Stop that crap. Right now, you reptiles are the ones who're keeping the artifact all to yourselves to sell expensive water and earn money big time!

That's not it, Se Hwan.

He's right...

If everyone finds out about the existence of this artifact, there's going to be someone who would want to take it for himself. In the worst-case scenario...

A WAR MIGHT START ALL OVER AGAIN.

That scene of hell which we've only heard stories about...

Would unfold right before our very eyes...

.....

...Well, I think you have understood
what I am trying to say,
more or less, so please follow me.

I will guide you
through the shortcut
to the village.

And... I have a separate request to ask from you.

I shall explain as we work.

Six: step x2

.....

We're here. If you go out through that hatch, you will be inside a house in the village. I have to lock the hatch from the inside so this is where we part ways.

I hope you'll all think about what I have said, and give me your answer in a few days. Farewell..

Wow! It really is the village!

So this is where they come from to sell water~

Everyone overcame that horrible pain...

...and have tried their best to forget about it and live on...

I can't let these people experience that hell ever again.

I must protect it!

Why are you spacing out?
You'll get the passageway
discovered.

Oh, sorry.

Hey Sa Hwan,
The thing chief told us
earlier... you're gonna do it, right?

...don't know.

Well, if it's a request then I should hear about the pay before deciding...

That's not fair, You have to do it... Or else,
I'll kick you out.

...The injustice
I suffer for not having my own house...

Sir, is it really safe to let them go just like that?

Like I said earlier, we are overpowered against the Heen.

We should consider ourselves lucky for ending things quietly.

But don't we have Thing?

If it's Thing, he should be able to...

Thing is our clan's last resort. We must save him until the very end if possible.

Reader, I'll mention again that the Heen are so powerful that we must be prepared for the worst. I'm not saying the Heen are evil...

I understand. Then what should we do with Thing?

Is the preparation done?

Yes, sir.

Once he has been awakened, he won't be able to recognize even his own people until it ends, so I have told him to wait with no one near him.

... Do you do it now that it is too early to use Thing.

If we did use Thing, it would be him who would destroy our home instead of Be Heen. Nobody's allowed to approach him until his awakening is done.

Yes, sir.

THING~!

THING~! WHERE ARE YOU?!

It's disappearing

Thing, Thing,
Thing! Did you know what happened
today?

I followed Tim out without him knowing when he went to patrol.

You know those hyena guys, right?
Those guys tried to kill us...

But then,
there was this guy named Ben Hann...

He spread out something that looked like white paper.

Following I and just like that I as heart up those being done.

Why aren't you answering?
Are you listening to me? Are you sick?

Thing!

Awoo, ah-!

Awooshwoosh!

Ah, you want to go out?

*But dad might scold us
if I go out again...*

Ah, whatever!
Let's go out!!
